The University shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy or error in such information provided, nor shall any such inaccuracies or errors excuse the Hirer from its obligations or liabilities under Clause 28.2.

21 Data Protection

21.1 For the purposes of these Terms, “Data Protection Legislation” means:

(a) unless and until the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (“GDPR”) is no longer directly applicable in the UK, the GDPR, the Data Protection Act 2018 and any national implementing laws, regulations and secondary legislation, as amended or updated from time to time, in the UK; and then

(b) any successor legislation to the GDPR or the Data Protection Act 2018, and “data controller”, “data processor”, “personal data” and “data subject” shall each have the meanings as defined in the Data Protection Legislation.

21.2 Where the University is acting as a data controller when performing its obligations under the Contract, it will only process any personal data as set out in its Privacy Policy (<https://www.falmouth.ac.uk/data-privacy>) as such document may be amended from time to time in its sole discretion.

21.3 If the University processes any personal data on the Hirer’s behalf when performing its obligations under the Contract, the Hirer acknowledges that the Hirer will be the data controller and the University will be the data processor for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation. The University may process personal data on the Hirer’s behalf including names and email addresses in order to fulfil its obligations under the Contract. The University will only process such personal data for as long as is necessary to comply with its obligations under the Contract.

21.4 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This Clause 29 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party’s obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.

21.5 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 29.4, the Hirer will ensure that it has all necessary and appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the personal data to the University for the duration and purposes of the Contract.

21.6 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 29.4, the University shall, in relation to any personal data processed in connection with the performance by the University of its obligations under the Contract:

21.6.1 process that personal data only on the Hirer's written instructions unless the University is required by the laws of any member of the European Union or by the laws of the European Union applicable to The University to process personal data ("Applicable Laws"). Where the University is relying on laws of a member of the European Union or European Union law as the basis for processing personal data, The University shall notify the Hirer of this before performing the processing required by the Applicable Laws unless those Applicable Laws prohibit The University from so notifying the Hirer;

21.6.2 ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures;

21.6.3 ensure that all personnel who have access to and/or process personal data are obliged to keep the personal data confidential;

21.6.4 assist the Hirer, at the Hirer's cost, in responding to any request from a data subject and in ensuring compliance with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;

21.6.5 notify the Hirer without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach;

21.6.6 at the Hirer's written direction, delete or return personal data and copies thereof to the Hirer on termination of the Contract unless required by Applicable Law to store the personal data; and 21.6.7 maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this Clause 29.

21.7 The Hirer consents to the University appointing third-party processors of personal data under the Contract, provided that the University notifies the Hirer of the identity of any such third-party processors prior to their appointment and provided that the University informs the Hirer of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of any such third-party processors. The University confirms that it has entered or (as the case may be) will enter with any third-party processor into a written agreement incorporating terms which are substantially similar to those set out in this clause. As between the Hirer and the University, the University shall remain fully liable for all acts or omissions of any third-party processor appointed by the University.

21.8 The Hirer consents to the University transferring personal data outside of the European Economic Area for the purposes of the Contract.

21.9 The University may at any time revise this Clause 29 by replacing it with any applicable controller-to-processor standard clauses or similar terms forming part of an applicable certification scheme.

21.10 The Hirer shall defend, indemnify and hold the University harmless against claims, actions, proceedings, losses, damages, expenses and costs (including without limitation court costs and reasonable legal fees) arising out of or in connection with the Hirer's failure to comply with this Clause 29.

22. Force Majeure Event:

Neither party shall be in breach of this agreement nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under this agreement if such delay or failure result from events, circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control. In such circumstances the time for performance shall be extended by a period equivalent to the period during which performance of the obligation has been delayed or failed to be performed. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for twelve weeks, the party not affected may terminate this agreement by giving seven days' written notice to the affected party.

23. General

23.1 Notices under these terms shall be in writing addressed to the other parties at their registered office or principal place of business. Notices shall be delivered by hand or by pre-paid first-class post or other next working day delivery service or sent by email to the address notified in writing to the other party. Any notice or communication shall be deemed to have been received:

23.3 This Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that in entering into this Contract it does not rely on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in this Contract.

23.4 Nothing in this Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the parties, constitute any party the agent of another party, or authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other party. Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

23.5 Unless it expressly states otherwise, this Contract does not give rise to any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Contract. The rights of the parties to rescind or vary this Contract are not subject to the consent of any other person.

23.6 No waiver by the University of any breach of the contract by the Hirer shall be considered as a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision.

23.7 If any provision of the contract is held by a court or other competent authority to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part the validity of the other provisions of the contract and the remainder of the provision in question shall not be affected.

23.8 The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales, and the Hirer agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
